Top style guru helps stars break out of their ruts with fresh new looks

RE-DESIGNING WOMEN

EVERYONE gets stuck in the same-old, same-old style - and celebs are no exception. With the help of Manhattan-based image consultant Montgomery Frazier, and the magic of computer wizardry, Star has transformed the tresses and updated the makeup of some of Hollywood's most famous faces. Change is gonna do you good, gals!

MAKEOVER MAN Fashion guru Montgomery Frazier has a roster of celeb clients who shell out big bucks for his discerning eye. "I help to reinvent, redefine and relaunch my clients' images," he says.

These stars are picture-perfect

MEG RYAN With her sexy, wispy hair and soft, subtle makeup, Meg keeps her style current and cutting-edge.

HEATHER LOCKLEAR The Spin City stunner knows just how to keep her look hip and glamorous. Layered locks frame her gorgeous face and put the focus on her irresistible deep blue eyes.

LISA KUDROW Not every actress can wear her hair superlong and straight, but Lisa makes Friends with her luscious locks. Simple, but glamorous jewelry adds an elegant touch.

CAMILLA PARKER-BOWLES Prince Charles' frumpy mistress needs a royal change, starting with a honey-blonde bob, rosy blush and fab monochromatic camel-colored suit.

KATHIE LEE GIFFORD The former talk host's new coif is a major improvement. Laying off the heavy eyeliner and playing up her luscious lips with color and shine completes the transformation.

WHOOPI GOLDBERG For a fresh, fem feel, Whoopi needs to lose the granny glasses, dump the dreadlocks, blow out her curls, add crimson lipstick and slip into a Grecian gown.

SUSAN LUCCI Red-y or not, it's time for the soap star to break out of her helmet-hair rut, and start experimenting with colorful, contemporary clothing like this outfit.

GOLDIE HAWN A short, lighter bob is long overdo for the bubbly blonde. And a light foundation would even out her skin tone. Add a retro jacket and she's to tie-dye for.

SALLY FIELD A razor-cut 'do and smoldering charcoal eye shadow liven up Sally's look.

BARBRA STREISAND Blonder locks and Cleopatra-style makeup give the diva more definition.

CELINE DION The diva's divine with straighter, sleeker strands and ice-blue shadow.

FARRAH FAWCETT Charlie's Angel should trade her '70s shag for a chic '40s twist. Heavenly!
